The risk of accidental loss or accidental deterioration of the goods shall pass to the Buyer as of the time when the Buyer is in default of acceptance or payment.

4. Prices; terms of payment; exclusion of offsetting and retention

4.1 Unless agreed otherwise, sale and delivery shall be effected on the basis of the price lists valid at the time the offer was made. The Buyer is only entitled to exercise a right of retention (Zurückbehaltungsrecht) if the counterclaims are undisputed or have been finally and non-appellate-ably established and if they are based on the same contractual relationship.

5. Delivery, passing of risk; consequences of late delivery; force majeure

5.1 Documents, illustrations, drawings are furnished free of charge and may be used by the Buyer only for the purpose of sale of the purchased goods. The risk of accidental loss or accidental deterioration of the goods shall pass to the Buyer at the time of delivery or the Buyer’s order (whichever is later) and shall not be transferred to G&D, even if the goods pass through the Buyer’s hands or are held in possession by the Buyer as of the time when the Buyer is in default of acceptance or payment.

5.2 Delivery periods and/or delivery dates promised by G&D are always approximate unless a fixed period or date has been promised or agreed. G&D’s duty of delivery shall be suspended in case G&D, as well as G&D has not received the necessary instructions for the proper execution of the contract and on the compliance of which the Buyer is regularly entitled to rely on (“Essential Obligations”).

5.3 If the Buyer is in default of acceptance or culpably violates other duties of cooperation, G&D shall be entitled to have the goods replaced by another place other than the place of intended delivery, unless these goods are not available to G&D. procurement risk, is liable on the basis of the German Product Liability Act, and in the event of bodily injury (injury of life, limb and health) or in other cases of mandatory liability. This does not lead to a change in the burden of proof to the detriment of the Buyer.

7.6 Notwithstanding Section 438 (1) no. 3 BGB, the general limitation period for claims from defects of quality and title is one year from delivery. Insofar as an acceptance has been acknowledged upon, the limitation period shall begin with the acceptance. However, if goods relate to a building or an item that is used for a building in accordance with its normal method of use and has caused this building to be defective (building materials), the limitation period is five years from delivery in accordance with statutory provisions (Section 438 (1) no. 2 BGB). Any other special statutory provisions regarding the statute of limitations (in particular, Section 438 (1) no. 1 and (3), Section 445b BGB) shall also not be affected. The aforementioned limitation periods of the governing purchases shall also apply to contractual and non-contractual claims for damages of the Buyer which are due to a defect in the goods, unless the application of the regular legal statute of limitation pursuant to Sections 195, 199 BGB would lead to a shorter limitation period in the individual case. The Buyer’s damage claims due to intent or gross negligence and/or injury to life, limb or health as well as under the German Product Liability Act shall become time-barred in line with statutory periods of limitation. Also to the extent G&D has fraudulently concealed a defect or assumes a guarantee for the quality of the goods (§ 444 BGB), the limitation period cannot be limited.

8. Reservation of title

8.1 The following reservation of title serves to secure all existing current and future claims of G&D against the Buyer resulting from the ongoing business relationship between G&D and the Buyer as well as all balance claims from current accounts (hereinafter referred to as “Secured Claims”).

8.2 All goods supplied by G&D remain the property of G&D until the full payment of all Secured Claims. The goods supplied and any goods that replace these and are subject to the reservation of title pursuant to the provisions below are hereinafter referred to as “Reserved Goods”.

8.3 If the Buyer combines the Reserved Goods with goods of another origin to new items, G&D is entitled to co-ownership in the proportion of the value of the Reserved Goods (final invoice amount including VAT) at the time of supply to the value of the other combined goods (final invoice amount including VAT) at the time of combining. The co-ownership share is deemed to be Reserved Goods within the sense of clause 8.2. In the event that no such acquisition of ownership occurs for G&D, the Buyer hereby now transfers as a security its future ownership or – in the aforementioned proportion – its co-ownership share to G&D. G&D hereby accepts this transfer.

8.4 If the Reserved Goods are combined to a uniform item and if any of the other items can be regarded as the main item within the sense of Section 947 BGB, the Buyer, if it is the owner of the main item, hereby now transfers to G&D the proportionate co-ownership in the uniform item in the proportion of the value of the Reserved Goods (final invoice amount including VAT) at the time of supply to the value of the main item (final invoice amount including VAT). G&D hereby now accepts this transfer. The co-ownership share is regarded as Reserved Goods within the sense of clause 8.2.

8.5 The Buyer shall retain the Reserved Goods on behalf of G&D at no cost. The Reserved Goods may neither be pledged nor assigned as collateral to third parties before payment in full of the Secured Claims.

8.6 The Buyer is entitled to sell the Reserved Goods supplied in the ordinary course of business if it is ensured that its claims from the resale pursuant to clause 8.7 have been transferred to G&D.

8.7 If the Reserved Goods are resold, the Buyer herewith now assigns to G&D the resulting claim against the Buyer on account of security as well as the claims that replace the Reserved Goods or that accrue in respect of the Reserved Goods, such as insurance claims or claims resulting from an event of loss or destruction, including all balance claims under current accounts. G&D hereby now accepts this assignment.

8.8 The Buyer is revocably authorized to collect the claims resulting from a resale pursuant to clause 8.6. G&D may revoke the authorization to collection only in accordance with clause 8.9.

8.9 If the Buyer fails to meet its obligations under the contract with G&D, in particular if it is in default of payment:
- G&D may prohibit the resale and combining of the Reserved Goods with other goods;
- G&D may rescind the contract in accordance with the general regulations concerning rescission of Section 323 BGB; the taking back of the goods does not constitute rescission of the contract, except that G&D has expressly declared such rescission; in the event of rescission, the Buyer’s right of possession of the Reserved Goods lapses and G&D may demand return of the Reserved Goods; in coordination with the Buyer, G&D shall be entitled to enter the Buyer’s business premises and take possession of the Reserved Goods at the Buyer’s cost and to sell them in the open market or by auction on the most favourable terms without prejudice to any payment and other obligations of the Buyer; G&D will offset the sales proceeds against the Buyer’s liabilities after deduction of the costs; any surplus will be paid by G&D to the Buyer;
- the Buyer has to inform G&D on request of the names of the debtors of the claims assigned to G&D in order to enable G&D to disclose the assignment and to collect the claims; all proceeds attributable to G&D under the assignments are to be forwarded to G&D immediately after receipt, when and as soon as G&D’s claims against the Buyer have become due and payable;
- G&D shall be entitled to revoke the collection authorization granted.

8.10 Should the realisable value of the securities existing in favour of G&D exceed G&D’s claims by more than 10 %, G&D will, at the Buyer’s request, release the securities selected by G&D.

8.11 If G&D’s reservation of title is no longer valid due to deliveries abroad or for any other reasons, the Buyer shall immediately grant G&D any other security in the Reserved Goods or other security for its claims, which is valid under applicable laws and comes as close as possible to the securing effect of the reservation of title. The Buyer authorises G&D to the extent necessary for the effectiveness of the relevant security (including reservation of title), to enter the security in the required form in public registers, books, or similar documents and to disclose it in compliance with applicable regulations, or to do this itself, if necessary. If any costs are incurred from or in connection with the circumstances or actions mentioned in this clause 8.11, these shall be borne by the Buyer.

9. Applicable law and place of jurisdiction

9.1 The contractual relationship between G&D and the Buyer, including these GTCs, shall be subject to the law of the Federal Republic of Germany under exclusion of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG).

9.2 The place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising from and/or in connection with the contractual relationship, including these GTCs, – and for lawsuits involving cheques and bills of exchange – shall be Siegen, Germany, if the Buyer is a business person (Kaufmann) as defined by the German Commercial Code (HGB), a legal person under public law or a special fund under public law. In all cases, however, G&D shall be entitled to bring an action at the place of performance of the delivery obligation or at the Buyer’s general place of jurisdiction. Any overriding statutory provisions, in particular, regarding exclusive places of jurisdiction, shall not be affected.

10.1 The legal relationship between the Buyer and G&D is governed solely by the contract, including these GTCs. The contract fully reflects all agreements between G&D and the Buyer at the time the contract is concluded. Any oral or written agreements or conditions made between the parties prior to the conclusion of the contract, as well as any other pre-contractual correspondence and proposals, shall be superseded by this contract, unless they expressly state that they shall continue to be binding.

10.2 Changes or supplements to the contract, including this written form provision, must be made in writing to become effective. The same applies to any ancillary and additional arrangements.

10.3 If a provision of the contract, including these GTCs, is or becomes invalid in whole or in part, the validity of the remaining provisions of the contract shall not be affected by the invalidity of said provision. The invalid provision is to be replaced by a provision that comes closest to the economic purpose of the invalid provision, without being unfair to the Buyer.

10.4 If these GTCs are provided to the Buyer in various language versions, the German version shall be authoritative.
